

NEW Sir Leslie Munro, New Zealand, spoke to delegates at opening of 12th general assembly of United Nations after he was elected assembly president Tuesday. (AP)

HUDDLE Governor Orval Faubus, Arkansas, met with U. S. Representative Brooks Hays (right), Democrat from Arkansas, Tuesday. Hays acted as go-between in Faubus-Eisenhower conference last week. (AP)

TIME John Kasper (right) told his lawyer, Montague Ross (left), and Prosecutor R. B. Parker Jr. (center) he needs time at arraignment in Nashville Tuesday. He pleaded innocent to charge of inciting to riot. (AP)

TALK Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson and Neil H. McElroy of Cincinnati talk in serious vein Tuesday when they met at Pentagon on anniversary of founding of defense department. Wilson, who plans to retire, will be succeeded by McElroy. (AP)

Rev. Ulysses E. Blakely, 46, Philadelphia, has been called by First Presbyterian church of Chicago, a nearly all-white congregation, to be one of the church's copastors. (AP)

VIE One of these beauties will become Miss College Football in Berkeley next Saturday. From left (front) are Ilene Rubenstein, Mary Ann Mobley, Kathy Arnold, Fatti Blackledge, Beverly Young, Madeline Lee. (Back) Connie Morgan, Kay Hammanstrom, Suzanne Scudder, Lucinda Ann Lee, Maureen McConnell, Clara Tina Elmer, Sandy Gast, Sarah Young and Maryann Sheridan. Photo was taken as contestants met in Los Angeles. (AP)

DOTTY DRIPPLE

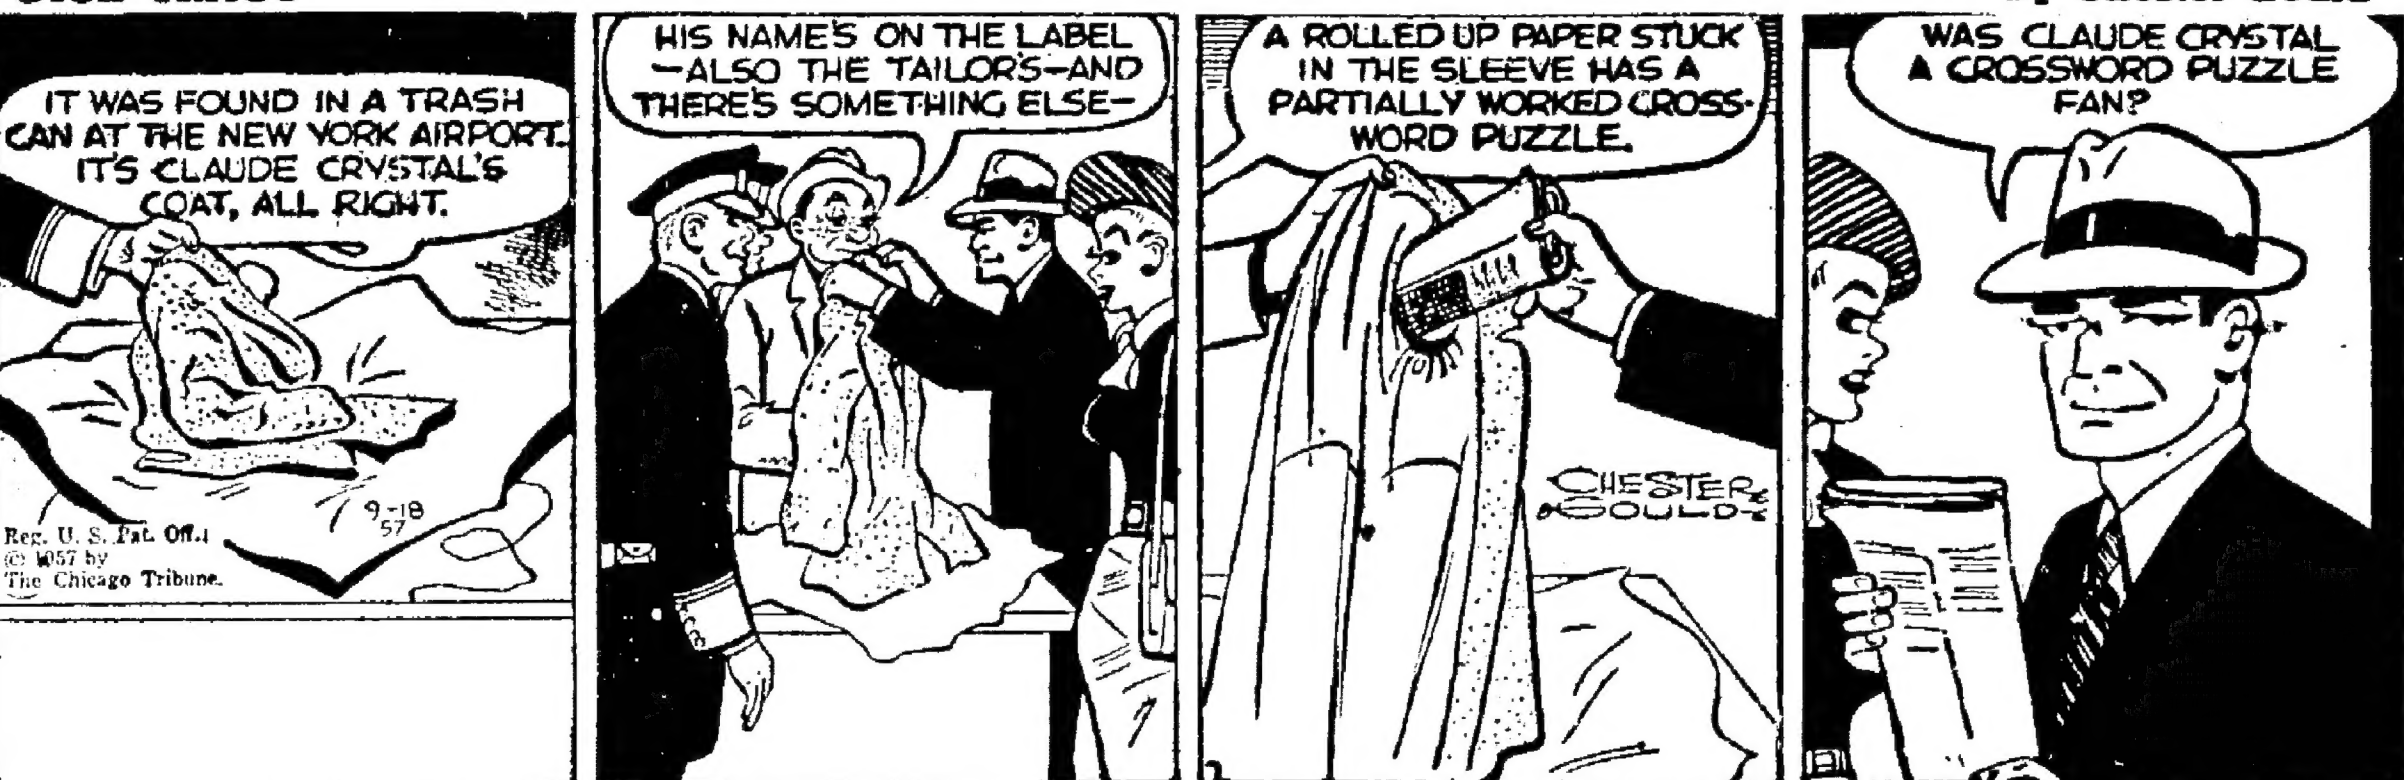

LIL ABNER

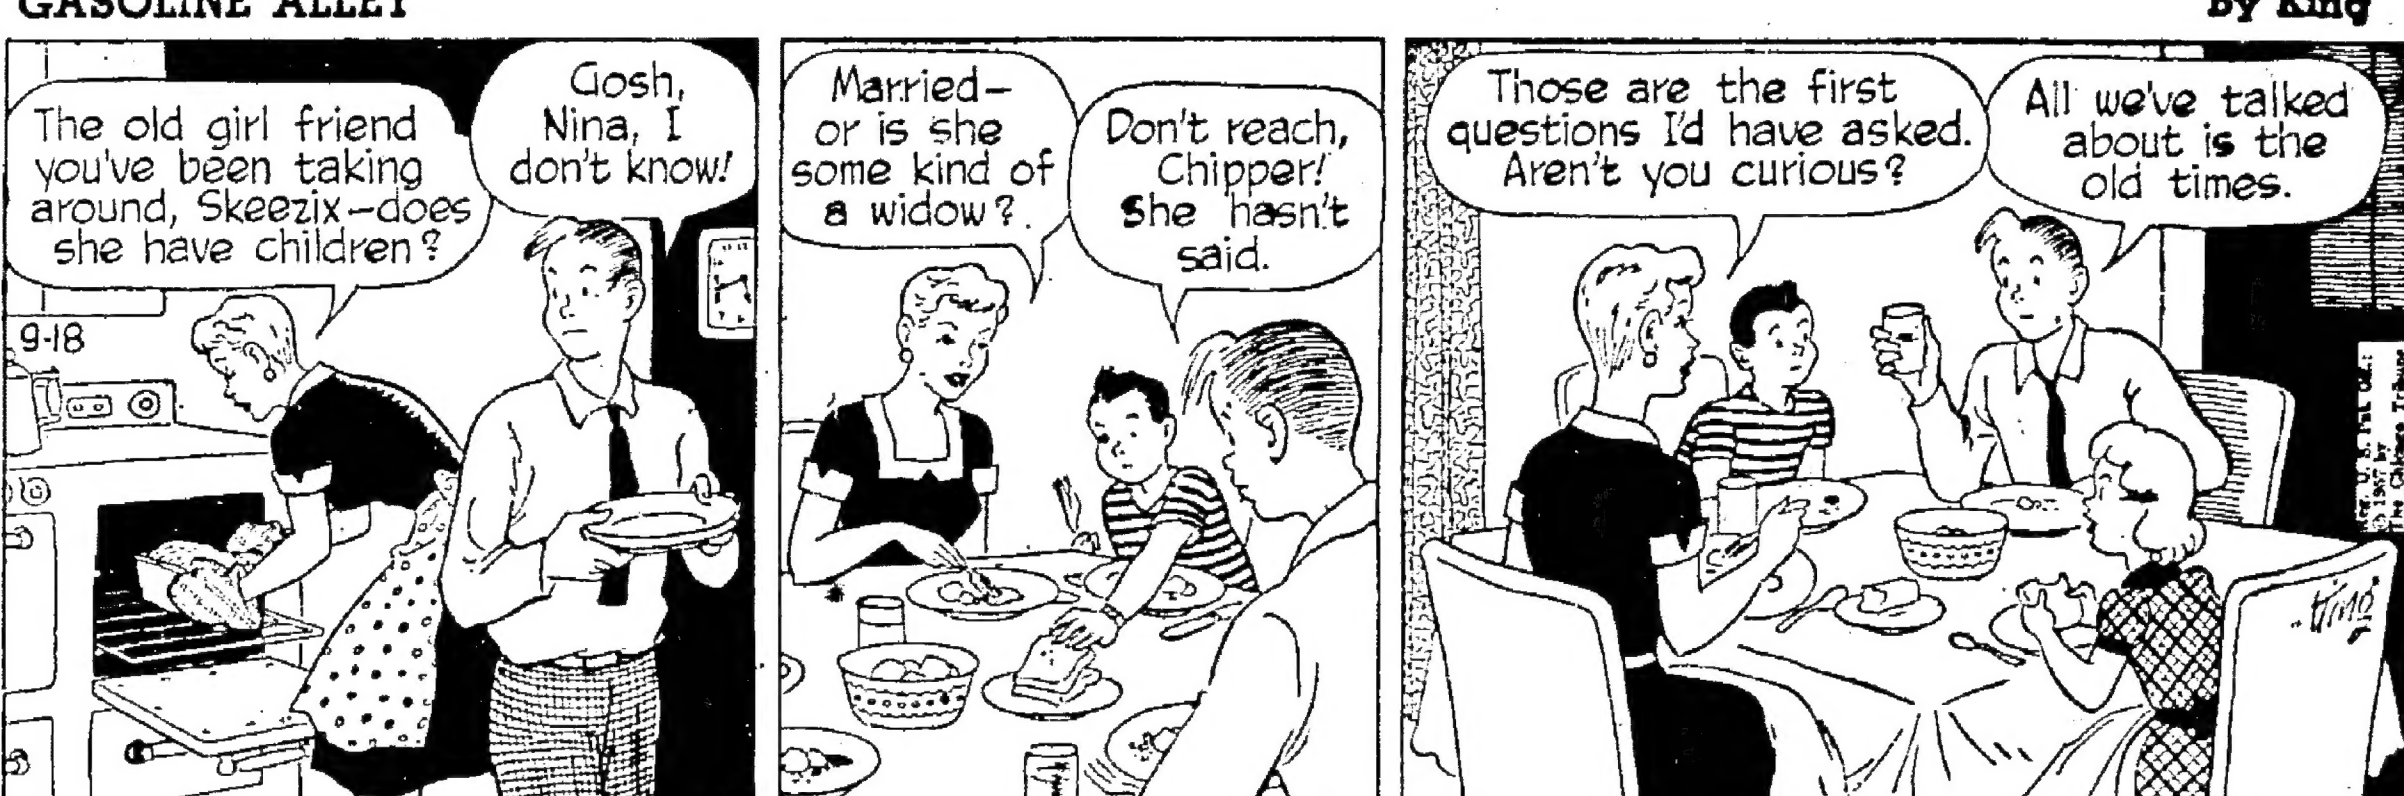

TERRY AND THE PIRATES

DICK TRACY

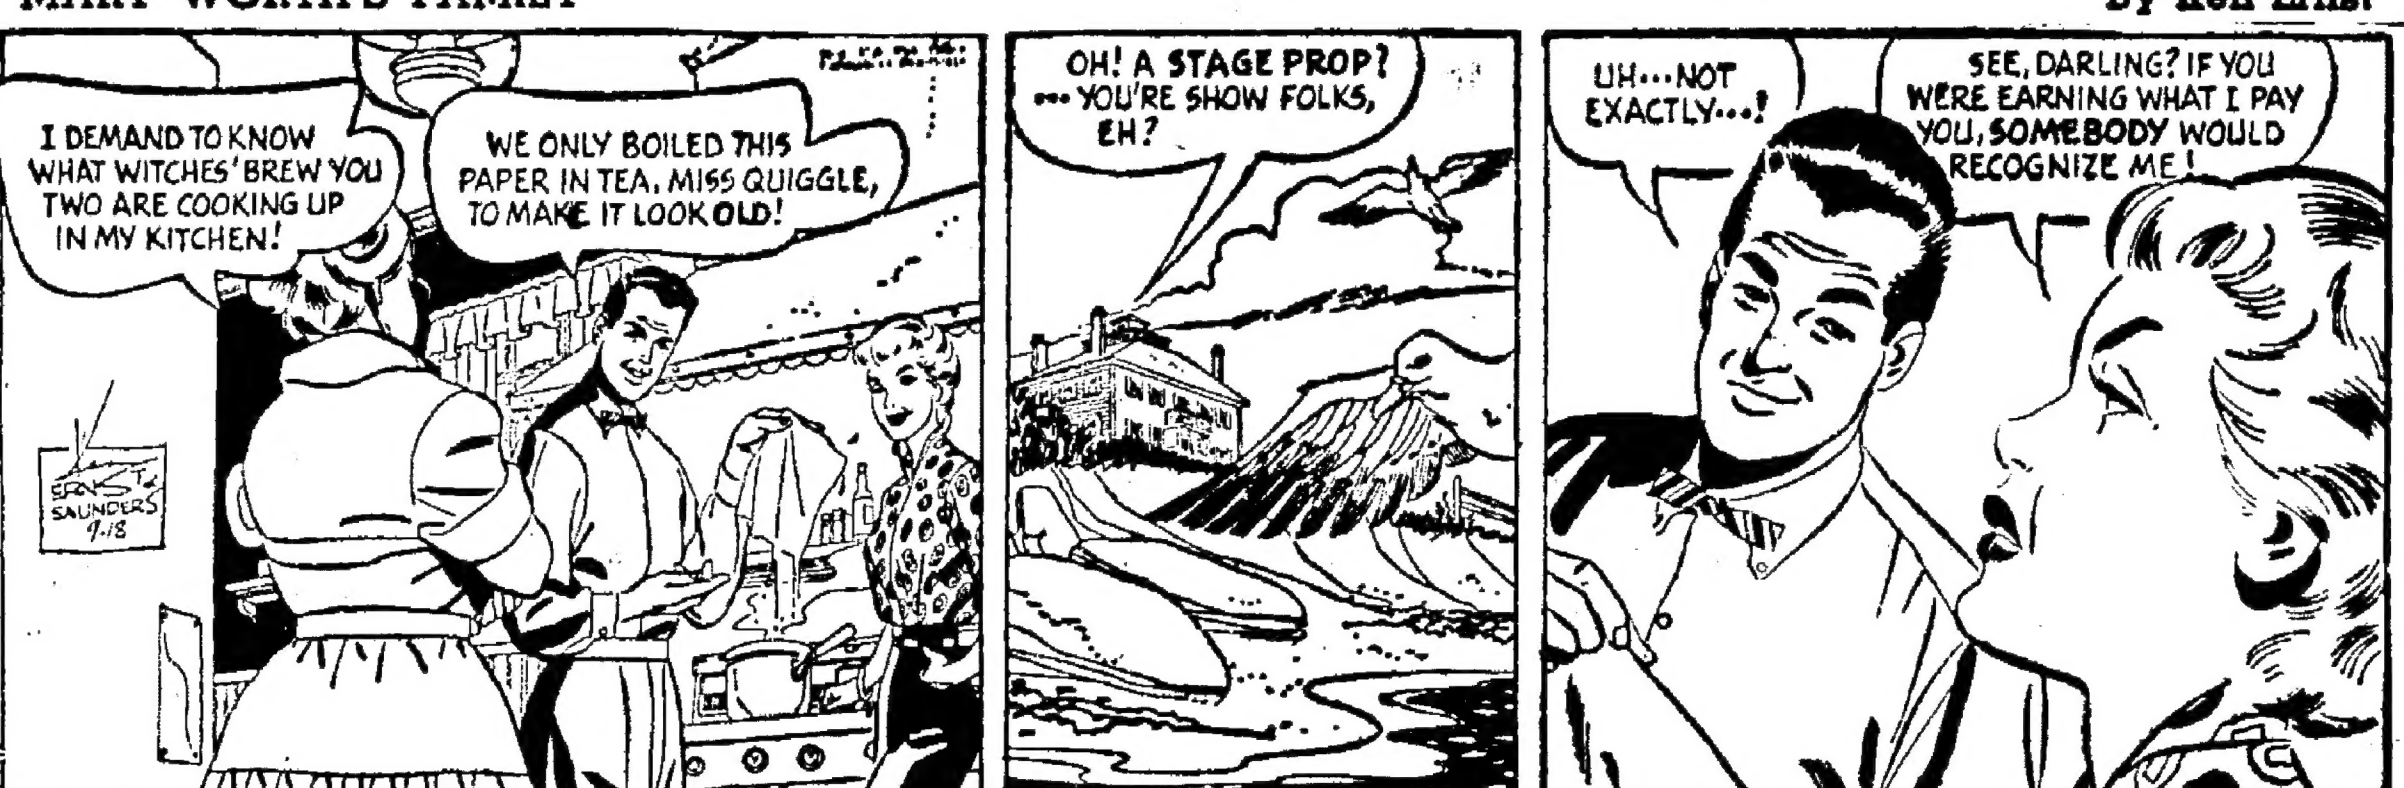

GASOLINE ALLEY

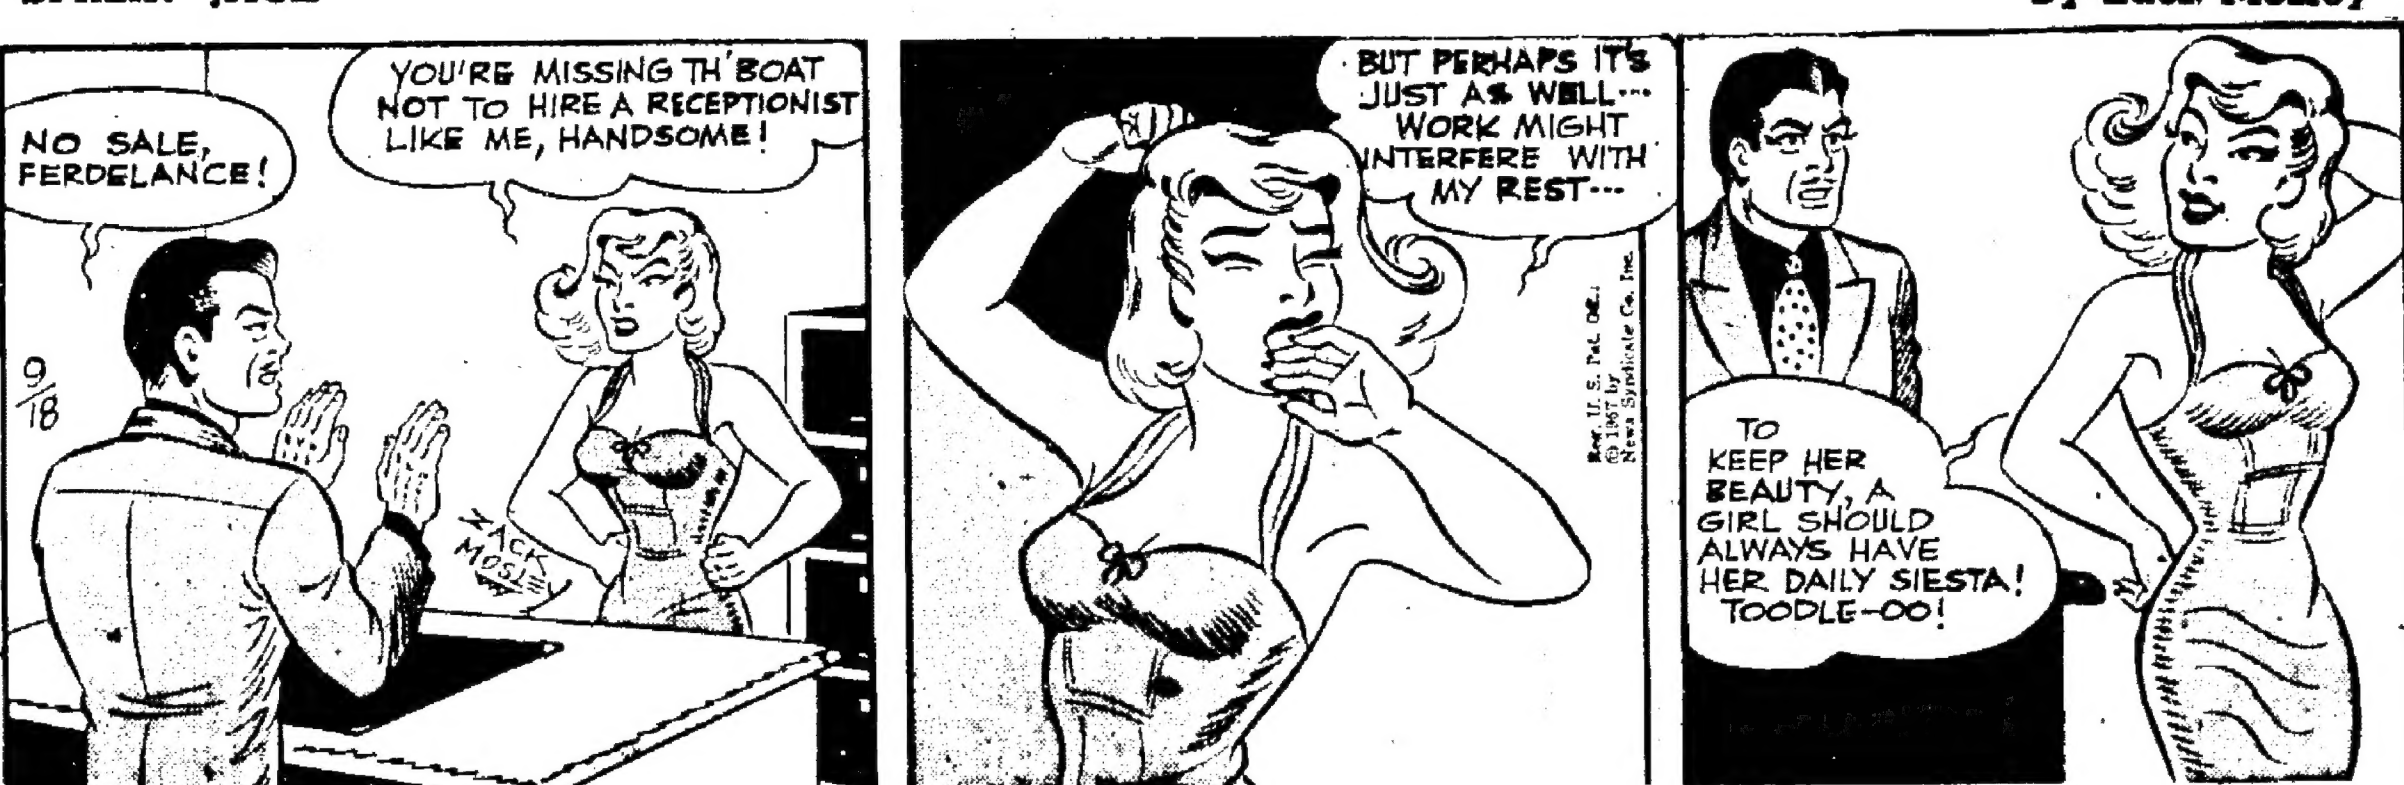

RIP KIRBY

MARY WORTH'S FAMILY

SMILIN' JACK

BUZ SAWYER

